Welcome!

Halloween is a fun time. You get to wear a costume, put on a mask & pretend you are someone you are not. Unfortunately, we sometimes treat church the same way. We think we have to look or act different to feel accepted. But Christ's blood breaks the bonds of sin & sets us free. He allows us to be who we really are...sinners who are forgiven. This week, show up as your real self, a child of God. Let us all praise a real God who offers real forgiveness.

CROSS WALK

DOUGLAS CRUM

Like many other Texans, I got caught up with the post-season play of the Texas Rangers. While I grew up just a few miles from the Ballpark in Arlington, and went to many games as a child, I lost interest in them over the years. It seems like they started off strong so many times, but by the end of the season they had worked their way out of playoff contention. Prior to the 2010 season, their 3 trips to the playoffs left them with a dismal 1-9 record. Before last Tuesday, they were the only team in the league who hadn't won a playoff series.

I must admit, as this season rolled along I continued to remind other fans of their less than stellar endings. "They've disappointed me too many times," I'd say.

But lo and behold the Rangers came through this year and I am left eating crow. Now I am not suggesting you go out and buy World Series tickets just yet, but the Rangers have done something they have never done before . . . they finished strong.

Whether it is baseball or life, we as Christians are called to finish strong. The older Paul charges Timothy to keep going on, "For I am already being poured out like a drink offering, and the time has come for my departure. I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. Now there is in store for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will award to me on that day—and not only to me, but also to all who have longed for his appearing." May you, too, not lose sight of the reward that God has promised you through His Son. So get out of the dugout and head towards home plate. There are bases to be run and games to be won.

I am glad that the basket bonanza went so well. Thank you all that we were able to help out and those that supported the cause. It was a lot of fun. It was a great time and we know Cornerstone will continue to do some awesome things. Dads and Lads was also a huge success. We had fun and there were some excellent stories. Kids in mud, egg tosses, giant fish and snakes, waking up in the middle of the night for interesting reasons, and we all made it home safe and sound. Thank you to all that helped out at the 5th quarter. We had a good crowd and fun competitions. Thanks for you help.

- Tonight is the concert here in Sweetwater. If you have not gotten tickets yet you can get them at the door. We will have a shortened class then leave at 6:30 to get decent seats.

- Chaos is this Wednesday. There will not be a Teen Feed but there will be food at Chaos for everyone.

- Last Wednesday is on the 27th. Bring a friend and we'll have some fun.

- Casting Crowns concert is the 28th. Don't forget!!!

- The Jericho Project is going to be on November 6th. We're looking forward to that great event.

Take care. Keep God in the center of your life. Pray hard. --Levi
